Welcome to Wee Disciples

We will spend the coming week talking about real heroes in our community. We will talk about the police and firefighters and all the people who help us and take care of us. This will complete our discussion about Superheroes & heroes.

The next unit of study we are planning is all about music. If anyone has an instrument at home that they would be willing to bring in and show the class, please let me know.

God's Blessings in the coming week,

Karen Rohrer, Julie Elsts, and Karen Ross
