

Parenting Strong-Willed Kids

Strong-willed kids can make us want to pull our hair out—trust me, I have 3 of them! They can frustrate us, baffle us, and sometimes even make us want to give up. In this Parenting Seminar, we will discuss:

- what your strong-willed child needs and ways to provide those needs without losing your authority (or your mind!)
- how to avoid power struggles and apply effective discipline strategies that work
- how to build a mutual respect and a close, positive relationship for life!
